What is a Friend?

Friends of the Library in Oxford (FOLIO) are a group of people who advocate and support the Oxford Public Library.

What does a Friend do?

Your membership fee helps supplement the Oxford Public Library with quality programs and resources.

How can a Friend help?

With Your Voice: By attending our meetings, a friend can advocate for programs and needs of the Library.

With Your Time: Friends can volunteer their time helping with various fundraising events such as our annual book sale or holiday raffle.

With Your Donation: Just becoming a member is the simplest way to say you care about our Library.

How can I become a Friend?

You can complete the membership form attached or go to www.oxfordlib.org to download an application.

YOUR SUPPORT

Helps provide:

- Museum passes
- Special events (concerts, author visits)
- Computer access
- Kindles and over 100 E-books
- Technology programs
- Education programs for children and adults
- New furnishings for the Library community
- Bricks in the Library patio

This all comes from your membership!
